

PURELY PERSONAL

The Movement of Many People, Newberrians and Those Who Visit Newberry

Messrs. R. D. Smith, Jr., and A. R. Booser attended the annual convention of the South Carolina division of the Travelers' Protective association in Sumter on Thursday morning. Mr. Smith was elected as a delegate to the national convention at Atlantic city June 5. It was an important meeting. See report of proceedings in another column.

"Thieves broke in" and stole $1,200 in cash from safes in Florence on Wednesday night. Moral: Put your money in secure bank vaults of Newberry; don't "put your trust" in safes—it is not safe. The National bank, the Commercial bank, and the Exchange bank are here to preserve your cash.

President S. J. Derrick of Newberry college made an eloquent address at the chapel period Thursday morning. From a press account of the meeting last week of the Clemson college board of visitors.

Rev. S. T. Hallman, D. D., once of Newberry, now and long since of Spartanburg, has been elected as writer of the history of the South Carolina Lutheran synod. The friends and acquaintances, to say nothing of relatives, and they are legions in America, know that this historical work has "fallen into good hands."

We agree with The State in saying that "the chautauqua is an institution" that merits the support of every community it visits and entertains and serves to make more desirable as a city of residence and opportunity," also that "the chautauqua furnishes annually a vast resource of entertainment and instruction to tens of thousands of the most substantial people of this nation." Newberry is in the "very midst" of chautauqua now, enjoyed by hundreds of our most substantial people.

Next Monday will be the beginning of the "clean up" and "paint up" season. Don't forget it, and don't forget to "keep-it-up."

The reporter wasn't on hand at the time to note the fact that Mr. John Henry Chappell had entered the arena as a candidate for magistrate. Mr. Chappell knows the business of the office, as he has had much experience in that line.

Typographical (some people call it typ—instead of ty-pographical) errors are so common to all newspapers we rarely call attention to them, but as one man said he didn't understand about "fost" wonderful babies, we have to explain. We wrote "most wonderful," but an "f" fell into the place of the "m" and made it "fost wonderful." Of course everybody knows why we said every baby was the most wonderful baby in the world.

Dr. and Mrs. D. K. Gotwald left Friday for their home in Springfield, Ohio, after a pleasant visit here to their son, Dr. W. K. Gotwald, and family.

Many Newberry Shriners will attend the Spring ceremonial for Hejaz temple in Rock Hill May 18, on which festive occasion there will be 1,500 or 2,000 members present.

E. H. Aull was in the city yesterday en route to Charleston where he will attend the Lutheran synod. From 20 years ago, The State, 6th.

Mrs. A. S. Rae returned on Saturday to her home in Greenville her sister, Miss Carrie Grenaker, having improved, we are glad to say.

All hands join in and make successful clean up, paint up week, to be inaugurated by virtue of the civic league, the health officer and the various organizations of the city.

If you did not know it we will tell you that you can get real good bargains at Rose Anthony's sale now going on. There are some fine goods there go very cheap, and the people are buying. Take advantage of the opportunity and be in time for the choice articles before they are gone.

Miss Mary Gasque has returned from Newberry, where she was the guest of her friend, Miss Audrey Jones, for a week or more.—Laurensville Herald.

An automobile got stuck on Scott's creek Friday and only succeeded in being pulled out after strenuous exercises of men and mules, with chains, etc. We felt sorry for the men who had to labor hard standing in the water, but we did not feel sorry several days before for a driver who attempted to cross after he had been told of the difficulty. We have spoken of this bad place in the road more than one time. Many out-of-town travelers do not know of it. The advice is here repeated: The road leading from the residence of Dr. C. D. Weeks to the residence of Mr. John A. Lindsay is not for travel by automobiles and trucks.

Messrs. Frank E. and James B. Mc-

Cravy, well known gospel song leaders, left Sunday night for engagements in special revival meetings, the former at Portsmouth, Va., and the latter in Baltimore.—Laurensville Herald, 5th.

Tonight, Monday, "Turn to the Right," at the chautauqua tent. It is the great American play.

Tuesday, being the fifth day at chautauqua, it will be children's entertainment in the morning, with magic and mystery; artists' concert in the afternoon with Little Symphony orchestra; and concert repeated at night, with lecture on "Traitors to Justice," by Judge Marcus A. Kavanagh.

The Laurensville Herald well says: "With reference to a Sunday session of the legislature it does not require any special deliberation to decide that it is the wrong thing to do."

The Coca-Cola Bottling plant distributed 1,000 whitecaps Friday. A great run was made on the plant for the caps, as soon as it became known "what was going on."

Mrs. Agatha A. Woodson, now of Newberry—beloved by all in her old home—came here Thursday from the Saluda U. D. C. conference, accompanied by her attractive little granddaughter, Miss Josephine McDonald of Augusta. They will return to Newberry this week.—Edgefield Chronicle, 4th.

Bethlehem (colored) Baptist church of Newberry is holding a series of meetings, and the services are attended with interest by the members and friends of that denomination.

Wednesday after the morning's entertainment for the children at chautauqua with the Mary Mason's Marionettes, the afternoon will bring a lecture on the "Failures of the Misses," by Chester Milton Sanford, to be followed at night by "Friendly Enemies," a modern comedy drama. These are treats to be looked forward to with pleasure.

Life is not so short but there is always time enough for courtesy.—Emerson. While many people, including citizens of Newberry, still believe in this, yet there are many others, including citizens of Newberry, who seem to regard it as out of practice.

Miss Mary L. Burton is in Orangeburg is visiting her niece, Mrs. C. A. Renneker and family.

Mrs. L. M. Player has been critically ill, but her many friends will be glad to learn that she is improving.

Speaking of Rose Anthony's bargain sales one man said "Rosantony" and it sounded altogether like a different name, but Rose, under any other name, would not be the same.

The State says that the order of Shifters "has been generally accused of being merely a simple way of making money out of the next unwary person," which is it in a nutshell, as this reporter intimated when the wave struck Newberry. But, as The State concludes, the Shifters are now "unshifting."

Mrs. J. H. West, state historian, returned last week from Clemson college, after attending "a most interesting and helpful United Daughters of the Confederacy conference," and engaging in "a lovely reception in honor of the state officers and delegates at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Daniel."

Prof. O. B. Cannon was in Columbia Saturday on business pertaining to educational matters.

The Mollohon baseball club has one of the finest parks in the state. It is on the dairy farm lot just beyond the Mollohon mill park, with new fence, new grandstand "an' everything."

Mr. J. T. Ward, after undergoing a minor operation at the Columbia hospital on last Monday, returned home on Wednesday. He is doing well; his many friends will be glad to know.

Sever persons have remarked that the chautauqua tent looked smaller than the one last year. The tents are all alike.

There are fine shows of moving pictures at the opera house all of this week. Monday, "Western Speed," Buck Jones. Tuesday, "The Silent Vow," Wm. Duncan. Wednesday, "The Shame of Society," Carlisle Blackwell. Thursday, "Don't Write Letters," Gareth Hughes. Friday, "Worlds Apart," Eugene O'Brien. Saturday, three two-reel pictures. These features are interspersed with the usual Fox News views and the comedies.

The announcement by the chautauqua superintendent Saturday afternoon that the guarantee had been paid and that the guarantors had made some money was met with applause by the audience.

A feature of the commencement exercises (Columbia Theological seminary) will be the inauguration of Dr. E. D. Kerr, professor of Hebrew and cognate languages, Wednesday at 1 o'clock in the seminary chapel, etc.—Sunday's State.

Mr. J. B. McDowell has the finest English peas ever seen in Newberry at this time of the year—two long rows waist high, loaded to the limit. The Gaffney Ledger calls upon Dr. Geo. B. Cromer to offer himself as a candidate for governor, and says he would make an ideal governor, and that "it is the opinion of all that he would make a splendid chief executive." This sentiment will be echoed and reechoed throughout the length and breadth of South Carolina.

Student L. B. Eargle of Newberry college was one of the speakers of the first convention of Single Standard of Morals league Friday and Saturday in Columbia. Bishop Finlay says the league is "one of the biggest movements ever started."

Dr. J. L. Daniel conducted the union services at the chautauqua tent Sunday night.

Mr. Robert Miller of Columbia spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Kate E. Booser.

Miss Julia Timmerman of Dyson is spending a few days with her uncle, Col. E. H. Aull, and family.

John Dorroh, a well known old colored citizen, died early Monday morning. He worked for years for the late Dr. Gilder and did gardening for others also.

Mr. R. R. Bruner of Orangeburg was in the city on business Monday. You all know him by this time, as he is associated with Manager Fischer of the Coca-Cola plant, and visits here at intervals.

Mrs. W. E. Pelham of Newberry is a patient at the Columbia hospital and her condition is improved.—The State, 8th.

Mr. J. Pat Livingston of Columbia spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Livingston. He has recovered from the wound received by a shot recently from someone firing into the trolley of which he was conductor.

Mr. Havard will drive the car.

Miss Pauline Booser is receiving congratulations from her many friends for winning the medal given by Drayton Rutherford chapter on Memorial day for the best examination on history. Miss Booser is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Booser of this city and a granddaughter of Mr. A. M. Dominick, a veteran of the county who fought in the 60's.

"All dressed up and nowhere to go," is like a fellow with a complimentary chautauqua ticket but can't use it.

A chautauqua is like a newspaper—it never has and never will, because it never can, please everybody at one time in all particulars. In Newberry as elsewhere there are people wise and otherwise. For instance, the finest violinist in the world could only entertain certain ones by playing breakdown pieces.

Mrs. T. E. Wicker is in Aiken visiting her daughter, Mrs. Henry Busch, Jr., and her granddaughter, the little Busch.

Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. J. Harry Sumner of Columbia are visiting at the home of his father, Mr. J. H. Sumner.

by his sister-in-law Miss Blanche Davidson. One friend said, "Reed was sure glad to get back home." All of his other friends are glad with him.

If The Herald and News should undertake to mention every one who was sick in each of its twice-a-week issues there would be too much space taken up. We can't pay public attention to the many "bad" colds and other little ailments.

Misses Pearl and Bessie Lake and Mr. J. H. Atkinson motored from Greenville Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. J. L. Bouknight, 625 O'Neill street.

Dr. A. J. Bowers of Greenwood is spending the week-end with his son and daughter in Newberry and looking after the building of his new residence now in course of construction just beyond east Harrington street. Ever so many people, Lutherans and all, will be glad when the carpenters complete that house.

You have noticed those "Congo river" hats worn by the mail deliverers. However, the hats are not confined solely to postoffice people.

Essie May Williams (guess she doesn't spell it "Mae") was up before the recorder Monday for colored disorderly conduct and paid $15 for indulging in the same.

Policemen Foy and Tobias, with the assistance of Mr. "Snib" Livingston, in the sick absence of the chief and the other members, are keeping up with the movements of the "Slim Jims" and their like who occasionally give "the force" trouble. Policeman Inabinet came out Sunday morning, worked a half day and had to go back to bed. Policeman Livingston came out and did duty Saturday afternoon and again on Sunday afternoon, but he too had to give up and go back to bed. These two tried to keep going but couldn't.

Eliza Booser, Laura Pratt and Mattie Miller, colored, were before the recorder Saturday, all charged with assault and battery and cursing. It cost Booser $20. Pratt and Miller came through with $10 each.

Note From the Operator

I think the editor meant to put "operator" after linotype. And I also think that if the editor had been attending to his duties as editor for the past few days he would have had time to furnish editorial matter which could have been set up before press day when so much other matter has to be set up.

NEWBERRY COLLEGE'S LAST HOME GAME

Newberry college will stage her last intercollegiate home game at the college park next Friday, May 12, against the strong Clemson nine. At present the Indians and Tigers are at the top of the list in the race for state championship, and if the Indians do not lose another game before Friday, that game will, in all probability, decide the winner of this contest. According to the present schedule, this will be Luther's last game in Newberry, for he will leave to join the Washington club at the end of school. This promises to be the best game of the season.

Woman's Club

The Woman's club will hold its next meeting May 25th with Mrs. E. V. Babb. Note change in date.

Mrs. Henry Cannon, Pres. Mrs. William Gotwald, Sec.

Will Wed Soon

Prosperity, May 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Bright L. Miller announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Gladys, to John D. Murray of Greenville.

Another chap out of luck is the ex-service man setting down and waiting on his bonus.

GENOA CONFERENCE MAY BE ADJOURNED

Believed That Recess Will Be Necessary to Permit Some Adjusting of Several Problems

Genoa, May 5.—It was asserted here tonight that the little entente, in view of the complications that have arisen over the memorandum presented by the allies to the Russians, contemplates proposing an adjournment of the economic conference until the problems which now are unsettled can be taken up with some probability of successfully ironing them out.

Adolph Joffe of the Russian delegation started for Moscow tonight to confer with the all-Russian central executive committee now in session in the soviet capital. While the Russian delegation has full powers to act at Genoa, it is desired that M. Joffe explain the progress of the conference to the committee which has authority to ratify agreements entered into.

The Russian reply to the allied memorandum is not expected to be presented for two or three days but, according to members of the Russian delegation, it will not necessarily be delayed until M. Joffe reaches Moscow.

Further complications over the Russian memorandum may arise tomorrow on the return to Genoa of M. Barthou of the French delegation, who has been on a visit to Paris and discussed the situation with Premier Poincare and the members of his ministry. Belgium still is obdurate in its insistence on a new clause in the memorandum to the Russians relating to the treatment of private property. It is reported that M. Barthou will submit to such a clause as a substitute for that at present contained in the memorandum.

Even if the entire commission on Russian affairs agrees to approve a new clause, it will be difficult to induce the Russians to accept it, as they are now complaining bitterly of the present clause and the French and Belgians are insisting on new provisions which will be much more drastic. They are demanding that they must be guaranteed that the Russians will not eventually turn over the property of foreigners to new owners.

London, May 5.—It is now generally believed, says a Rutler dispatch from Genoa, timed midnight, that M. Jaspard, the Belgian foreign minister, will not maintain his opposition to the memorandum presented to Russia, which it is expected France and Belgium will accept as now framed. If the memorandum is accepted Premier Lloyd George probably will return to London immediately.

BOARD OF VISITORS MEETS AT CLEMSON

Two Days Given to Thorough Inspection of Details of All Work

The State.

Clemson College, May 4.—The board of visitors has been inspecting every detail of the work of Clemson for two days. The following were present: W. W. Ball, Columbia; C. H. Seigler, Aiken; S. J. Derrick, Newberry; A. F. McKissick, Greenville; J. Lyles Glenn, Jr., Chester, and John S. Thompson, Dillon. Robert Lathan, editor of the News and Courier, telegraphed that he could not come. The board dined with President Riggs and the department directors at the trustee house last evening and took dinner with the cadets today. Wednesday evening President Riggs gave the visitors an illustrated lecture which gave them a comprehensive view of the inward workings of the institution. A dress parade was given today in honor of the board of visitors.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Aged Baptist Minister in Poor Health

Laurens, May 5.—The friends in Laurens of the Rev. John D. Pitts, D. D., retired Baptist minister, who was formerly pastor of the First Baptist church here but who now resides at Greenwood, have heard with regret that the condition of his health has necessitated his removal to a hospital at Rock Hill for special treatment.

Dr. Pitts for 29 years was pastor of the Baptist church of Laurens and after his resignation about 14 years ago he preached at Backville for several years before retiring from active ministerial work and going to Greenwood to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Featherstone, the latter being the eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Pitts.

These are the nights that many an upright piano becomes a downright nuisance.
